FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

WEDNESDAY, May 5-6 P. M. The stock market was greatly excited to-day over a further and heavy decline in prices. The move-ment inaugurated by the "bears" in the beginning of the week has been astonishingly successful, and the change of front has extended to both sides of the street. Operations in Wall street are at times like the ebb and flow of the tide, and the main strength of operators on either side determines which direction the current shall take. In this case the cliques were unanimous for a fall. The consti-tutional "bears" were, of course, immensely pleased, while the constitutional "bulls," failing in with the movement as one against which it were vain to struggle, swelled the stream. Ever since the middle of winter prices have steadily risen on the Stock Exchange. The tide has been three to four months en the flood. It was a favorable opportunity, there fore, for a reversal of the course of prices. The great cliques have started everything on a downward turn, and the ebb appears to have begun. Money was made active in order to assist their operations, but the attempt to tighten it has not proved successful. The growing abundance of funds in the metropolis at this season of the year precludes the hope of success for such strategy. The money market was easy at the close to-day. But its reaction will hardly stay the decline in stocks, for the impression is general that they must go down, and every one is for the This condition of things is a curious commentary on the character of present day speculation. The values of the Stock Exchange are to such an extent fictitious, or so concealed in the gambling operations of the cliques, that legitient is entirely at fault in its efforts to location. The great mass of parchment, scrip and securities which constitute one of the inherited resources of hundreds of families are tossed about like a football between money. The larger the aggregation of capital the greater its capacity for increase in Wali street. It is safe to say that hundreds of thousands of dollars have been lost since Monday morning last by those whom the swelling prices of the stock market during the spring induced to venture their margins at the moment when figures were at their highest and when it suited the cliques to sell and go "short." The long purses of these capitalists give them the power to withstand an unfavorable turn even when the tide of popular feeling becomes, as it sometimes will, temporarily unmanageable. In the long run they prevail against their opponents in the "outside public," who are numerically stronger, but financially weaker, and are, through their lack of organization more easily swayed by panicky feelings. In such a general movement on the part of the cliques they act deliberately and with skill. A starting point for a decline is just as essential as a rallying point for a rise. The bete noir selected for the campaign today was New York Central, which, from the prominence given to it for several months past, was most likely to lead the list. A vigorous attack upon it, accompanied by telegraphic announcement from Al-bany that the scrip bill would fail in the Senate, carried it down three per cent. Hudson River and Harlem, its par nobile fratrum, followed suit. The sapping of the lines now became easy. Fort Wayne staggered, recovered again and fought desperately, but yielded at last. Rock Island was an easy victim. Reading gave some trouble, but feil after a short struggle. The Northwestern stocks were obstinate and pleaded their merits as "desirable investments," but in vain. Michigan Southern and Lake Shore, strong in a common cause of consolidation, were tenacious and yielded comparatively little. Mariposa was hardly molested, as it was considered easy of conquest at any moment. Meanwhile more stubborn foes occupied the attention of the raiders. The attack halted at noon and under the cessation of operations and through an easier feeling in money toward the close of banking hours, the prostrate stocks sought to rise. The recuperated "bears" renewed the onslaught, and, beginning again with New York Central forced it down to 170%. The "break," extending throughout the list, resulted in a further general decline of from one-half to two per cent. The two exceptions were Pacific Mail and Illinois Central. Eisewhere dismay and ruin prevalled as darkness closed in upon the financial battle Money during the earlier hours of business was in good demand at the full legal rate, and some hasty borrowers and weak houses paid as high as gold interest. The supply was abundant after two o'clock and lenders had difficulty in placing all their balances at seven per cent. The activity has worked injuriously to the commercial interest, whose paper is ss in requisition and hence offering at higher rates of discount. A few days since the pressure was from the buyers, and rates in extreme quotations declined to seven per cent. With the change in the money market there is more paper offering, and the pressure is rather from makers, rates ranging from eight to ten per cent for prime double name ac-portion of the street, and the only transactions arose out of the regular investment inquiry. The price came a little better, 80, from London, which kept idy, in the face of an appreheffect of active money. The closing street quotations this evening were as follows:-United States sixes, 1881, registered, 1183/ a 119: do., coupon, 119 a 119%; five-twenties, registered, 113% a 113%; do. do. coupons, 1862, 118% a 118%; do. do., coupon, 1864, 114 a 114%; do. do., coupon, 1865, 115% a 115%; do. do., coupon, 1865, new, 116% a 116%; do. do., coupon, 1867, 116% a 116%; do. do., coupon, 1868, 116% a 116%; do., ten-forties, registered, 107% a 107%; do. do., coupon, 108% a 108%; currency bonds, 106% a 106%.

Pereign exchange was dull and rates rather irregular and nominal, owing to the number of bills in second hands purchasable at concessions from the asking figures of the prime bankers. The following shows the range of quotations:—Sterling, sixty days, commercial, 108% a 108%; good to prime bankers', 100 a 100%; short sight, 100% a 100%; Paris, sixty days, 5.21% a 5.16%; short sight, 5.16% a 5.18%; Antwerp, 5.21% a 5.16%; Switzerland, 5.21% a 5.16%; Hamburg, 35% a 35%; Amsterdam, 40% a 40%; Frankfort, 40% a 40%; Bremen, 78 a 78%; Prussian thalers, 70% a 71%.

Gold was comparatively quiet and the market less excited than usual, in consequence, probably, of the diversion of interest to stocks. Operators were also very cautious, and, in presence of the gold sale by the government to-morrow, indisposed to act. Before the board sales were made as high as 136. During the board the range was from 135% to 135%. There is very little "short" interest in the market the feeling, conversely to that in the stock market, being in favor of a rise. The Cuban expedition was without effect upon the price, in which the yielding to-day was the result of the high rates exacted for carrying gold, eight and ten per ceut per annum. and 1-32 per diem being charged before Clearing House and 7 per cent and 1-32 afterwards. The Sub-Treasury disbursed $1,216,942 in payment of May coupons. The Scotia and the Cambria brought about $125,000 in specie. The range in the price was

REAL ESTATE MATTERS.

The real estate market exhibits more animation for the last two weeks, especially in the matter of out of town sales. There were two excitements in the market yesterday—tho sale of Westchester property by James M. Miller, and the sale of property at Montclair, N. J., by A. J. Bleecker, Son & Co. The latter was held on the ground, and was well attended, lots averaging 100x100 selling all the way from $330 to $500. The sale was adjourned before half the lots were disposed of because the prices anticipated by the owner were not offered. Montanticipated by the owner were not offered. Montclair is a town very prettily situated, as its name implies, on the side of one of the highest mountains in New Jersey, and is the terminus of the Bloomfield and Newark Rainfoad. The property disposed of yesterday is distant more than a mile from the depot, but, although offering all the attractions of a fine view and a wholesome atmosphere, yet on account of its distance from the depot prices did not realize the expectations of the owner. They represented, however, a fair appreciation upon the amount invested some years since, and the entire result may be therefore accepted as a criterion of a growing advance in the value of suburban property, relative to the progress of the metropolitan centre.

The sales yesterday at the Exchange comprised a large offering of Westchester county property, besides other invoices, of all of which particulars will

An Original Sticips.—Simeon Duenster, of Sioux City, Wis., committed suicide on the 5th uit. by an original combination of hanging and drowning. He tied a sack of small stones around his neck, and fastened a bed cord to a post on the bank of the river, made a noose in the cord and slipped it around his neck, and then jumped into water where it was five feet deep.

The Paris Pigaro mentions that an American lady named Hill was recently drowned at Nice, white bathing in the sea, and the body could not be found.

OPENING OF THE FERRY TO TWENTY-THIRD STREET.—The new ferry from the Eric Railway depot to Twenty-third street, New York, was opened yesterday. From one o'clock till eight in the evening the boats were free to the public. The average time for each trip is ten minutes, and the boats will run every twenty minutes from five in the morning till nine at night, afterwards every hour. A complete description of the handsome ferry building at Twenty-third street and the new ferryboats has been already published in the Herald. The ferryboat Jay Gould left the Chambers street ferry at ten o'clock in the forenoon with a number of invited guests, including the great kings of Erie, Gould and Fisk, besides Colonel E. Miller, Superintendent Brooks, Mayor Sawyer and ex-Mayor Van Reipen, of Hudson City, P. Reilly and H. R. Clarke, Water Commissioners, of Jersey City, Charles G. Sisson and several railroad officers. The boat cruised along the East river to Grand street ferry, then turned around and sailed up the North river to Weehawken, giving the party a full view of the docks and other improvements in course of completion by the Eric Railway Company. A collation was served up at the Twenty-third street ferry building, after which a select few were invited to the Opera House. To Mr. Charles H. McIntosh, Superintendent of the Pavonia ferry, the people are mainly indebted for the completion of this ferry which has long been desired. The new ferryboat James Fisk will soon be completed, and the Pavonia horse railroad from the ferry to West End, Hudson City, will go into operation this week.

A DESPERATE CHARACTER.-Yesterday afternoon officer Kaiser went to arrest a notorious individual named Nicholas Carroll, residing in Foster's alley, when Carroll setzed a huge axe and attempted to cleave the constable. Kaiser, however, was rather quick for the desperado and subdued him with a few taps of his club. The prisoner was taken to the police station, where he will be tried to-day before

Hudson City. THE ALLEGED MALPRACTICE CASE. -On the motion for a writ of habeas corpus made by Mr. Hoffman in behaif of Drs. Black and Voelker, charged with mal-practice, Judge Bedle yesterday rendered his decision discharging the prisoners from custody on giving bail in the sum of $6,000 each. Louis Kelsweather, the other prisoner, will be released as soon as he can produre the same amount of bail.

ANOTHER VICTIM TO RAILROAD SLAUGHTER.—Yesterday afternoon a man employed as a baggage mas-ter on one of the Morris and Essex Railroad trains was engaged in coupling a locomotive to the for-ward car of a train near the tunnel at West End, when the bar elipped from the groove, and the engine rolling backwards crushed him to a jelly. The deceased, whose name was Hubert, was removed to his residence, at Hudson City. Coroner Polk will hold an inquest to-day.

LOCKJAW .- Timothy Murphy, an employe of the Morris and Essex Railroad Company, who was run over at the depot in this city a week or so ago and severely injured, has shown unmistakable symp-toms of lockjaw, which, it is thought, will result fatally. He has a wife and six young children.

SHOCKING.—While running to a fire yesterday a lad named Thomas Dunn, of No. 20 Shipman street, dropped dead in Springfield avenue. He was only thirteen years of age. Another boy, Wallace Brown, son of Mrs. Brown, corner of Broad and Court streets, in a boyish quarrel with a schoolmate, was severely stabled in the back with a slate pencil.

HONOR THE BRAVE. - At a recent meeting of Posts Nos. 2 and 11, Grand Army of the Republic, in this city, preliminary arrangements were made to repeat the ceremony of decorating the soldiers' graves, inaugurated a year age. It was decided to celebrate the occasion on the 29th instant. Colonel Johnson was chosen Grand Marshai and Rev. R. R. Méredrid, who served as captain of a company of his own raising during the war, was selected to make the oration. THE RECENT BAKERY AFFRAY,-Patrick McGurke.

the unfortunate man who was injured in an affray in Thompson's bakery, as already reported in the the thompson's basely, as arcany reported in the Herald, continued throughout yesterday in a very precarious state. The attending physicians will not venture an opinion either way. In the meantime James Stokes, his alleged assaliant, has been taken into custody and refused admission to ball. He was removed to the county jail yesterday.

Annual Meeting of the Essex County Board

OF FREEHOLDERS.—The regular annual meeting of the Essex county Board of Chosen Freeholders was held at the Court House in this city yesterday fore noon. The report of the Incidental Inspection Committee shows that the expenditures have decreased nearly $2,500 during the past year, compared with the figures of last. The usual reports from the various committees were received. There had been expended for making various improvements about the Court House 53,295 68; $46,000 of the war debt had been paid; $200,000 still stood; over $22,000 poil tax had been paid. Nearly $23,000 had been expended on bridges in Bloomfield, and it required a further outlay of about $3,000. The construction of High Bridge excited some comment as to the character of the work. Some claimed that it was not built as well as it might be, and others went so far as to say that it was dangerous for traffic. Others again explained that the jar of trains and the action of the frost were the cause of the seeming imperfections. It was not bad workman-ship—oh! no. The county physician's report is quite an interesting document. It sets forth that the whole rumber of cases amounted to 183 nearly $2,500 during the past year, compared with ship—oh! no. The county physician's report is quite an interesting document. It sets forth that the whole number of cases amounted to 183 during the year past, being a decrease compared with the past two years. "This decrease," the official sets forth in the aggregate. "Is owing mainly to a remarkable diminution in the frequency of still-born births, and to some extent, of railroad accidents, and of deaths from the effect of heat. While in 1867 to 1868 the number of stillborn and premature births which came under the jurisdiction of the county physician reached the astounding figure of sixty-one, there were only twenty-one of such cases during the past year; a more normal proportion." From deaths by "external causes," there were thirty drowned; nine sucides. Relative to the cases of drowning the county physician says:—"A city ordinance should be passed making it obligatory for every landlord to have his esterns closed and provided with pumps, or else securely guarded by a sufficiently high enclosure as to prevent such accidents. They are preventable accidents." The report further shows that in the matter of suicides, where there were nine cases in the year past, there were only two in 1867 and six in 1869. Therefore the nassage of a law "properly regulating and restricting the indiscriminate sale of poisons has become an imperative necessity."

COMMON COUNCIL.-The first regular meeting of the new Common Council was held on yesterday evening. Yielding to the remonstrances of the citievening. Yielding to the remonstrances of the citi-zens of the Third ward, the Council reconsidered their action with reference to the removal of police officer Thomas Browne, and decided, by a small ma-jority, to retain him on the force. A resolution was adopted to allow the street lamps to remain lighted all night. The report of the City Treasurer shows $17,925 49 balance in the hands of that officer. The expenses of the poor for the last month amounted to $294.

ALLEGED CHUELTY TO A WIFE.-Yesterday Constable Parks reported that about nine o'clock on the previous night he was attracted to Feeder street by previous night he was attracted to Feeder street by loud screams. On hastening up he found a woman lying on the sidewalk, her husband leaning over her. On questioning her she said her husband had thrown her from the second story window to the sidewalk. Both her legs are said to be broken. She refused to make any complaint. The parties are both colored. The husband's name is Henry Johnson. Up to instevening the police know nothing of the affair, and further particulars were unknown.

A man named Thomas Van Vostner alias John Foster pleaded not guilty to having passed at Phillipsburg, in Warren councy, in September, 1806, a counterfeit on dollar, bill and having 130 other counterfeit bulls of the same denomination in his possession. As reported in Tuesday's HERALD, Foster escaped in 1806 from the Trenton jail, but was arrested in Philadelphia and conveyed to Trenton, where he now awaits trial on Tuesday next. The District Attorney remarked that he was unable to move any case this week in consequence of the absence of detective Nettieship, but on next week he would move several in connection with the naturalization frauds. The jury were accordingly discharged thi Tuesday morning next at ten o'clock. guilty to having passed a counterfeit twenty-five

NEW YORK, May 5, 1969. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-

The law recently passed by the Legislature of this State relative to drug clerks is a step in the right direction; it is the inauguration of a much needed reform.

That many valuable lives have been lost through the incompetency of druggists a brief reference to the cases recorded from time to time in the daily papers will bear ample testimony.

But what avails experience simply in compounding medicines if the apothecary is allowed the liberty of renewing prescriptions indiscriminately, being necessarily ignorant not only of the stage of the disease, but even of the disease itself, for which the prescription was originally written? It is this midiscriminate renewal of prescriptions which causes so many fatal casualities; for how can a druggist, be he ever so experienced in compounding medicines, judge of the propriety or necessity of renewing a prescription, not only for a patient he has never seen, but, as frequently happens, for others for whom the prescription was never intended? Even should he see and examine the patient he would be unable to prescribe judiciously, since his knowledge of the art of compounding drugs gives him no knowledge necessarily of the science of medicine. While ignorant of the human system, the diseases to which it is liable, or the indications for their treatment, yet we know it to be a fact, broad as moonday, that any one, even a child, can take the bottle or pill-box to the drug store and have the same prescription renewed at anintum for anybody who may demand it, a reference to the number on the label being deened sufficient.

A fatal result of this practice is still fresh in the minds of the community in the case of the unifordeemed sufficient.

A fatal result of this practice is still fresh in the minds of the community, in the case of the unfortunate girl who recently died in this city from chloroform; the bottle had been filled repeatedly for several different persons upon the one original order given to a patient who at the time really needed it.

BROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

ALLEGED GAMELING. - John Ferris, the proprietor of a lager beer saloon at No. 44 Gold street, who was arrested by officer Gear, was taken before Justice Walsh yesterday and held to bail in the sum of $500 on a charge of gambling.

A CUTTING AFFRAY.—Patrick Carr, residing at the corner of Lorimer and Witners streets, E. D., be-came involved in a quarrel with his wife, during which he cut her severely with a razor. Carr was arrested and locked up in the Morrell street station house to answer a charge of felonious assault. FOUND DROWNED.—The body of an unknown man was found floating in the water yesterday at the foot of Montague street. The deceased was about five feet eleven inches in height and was twenty years of age. The body was removed to the dead house in Willoughby street to await identification. SALE OF FORFEITED CIGARS. - Marshal Dallon sold yesterday forenoon, at his office in Montague street, ninety boxes of snuggied cigars, which had been selzed by Custom House officers. There was a large number of persons present at the sale, and the bidding was very brisk. The prices at which they were knocked down ranged from $7.50 to $11.30. SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- Some reckless persons yesterday afternoon, while cutting down a shade tree in Broadway, near Fourth street, E. D., allowed it to fall upon the person of Andrew Marriott, who was passing at the time in a light wagon. Mr. Marriott sustained severe injuries. He was removed to his residence, in Magnolia street, by the police.

THE RECENT HOMICIDE.—Coroner Jones has empanelled a jury and made arrangements to hold an inquest over the body of James Dennigan. on Friday might, at his office in the County Court House. The deceased, it will be remembered, was stabbed in the back during an afray on Sunday afternoon at the corner of Johnson and Navy streets, and Robert Barry is now at the kings County Jall on a charge of being the party who indicted the wounds. Thomas Keilmeade, another of the party, who was beaten on the head with a club during the afray, is now lying in a critical condition at his residence, No. 167 Tillary street. The physicians, it is said, think his recovery doubtful. Patrick O'Niel, a saloon keeper at the corner of Navy and Johnson streets, and Thomas Hanley, a laborer, were arrested yesterday by officer Hamblin, on a warrant issued by Justice Walsh, upon a charge of felonious assault, preferred by Elizabeth Keilmeade, the wife of the injured man. The prisoners were taken before the Justice, and both committed to await the result of the injuries inflicted. O'Niel has stated that the injured man and others had a fracas at his saloon on Sunday afternoon, and returned to renew the altercation in the evening, when a final row occurred. He states that he was badly beaten himself during the affray, and now bears a wound over the left eye. inquest over the body of James Dennigan, on Friday

FIRES IN BROOKLYN.

Between nine and ten o'clock yesterday morning a fire occurred in Charles street, near York, and before the names could be surpressed a row of five tenement houses were demolished and the occupants left houseless. The origin of the fire was somewhat singular, showing how much mischief may be done

Two little girls, it appears, named fimma Brower and Bella Wright, were playing with some fire in one of the apartments of Mr. Brower's residence. Beneath the window where the children were at play stood a wagon load of hay which a farmer was engaged in unloading and stowing in a stable opposite. Emina Brower thoughtlessly threw a lighted chip from the window and it fell upon the hay, which immediately ignited. The farmers spread so rapidly that the horses narrowly escaped being scorched before the farmer could extract them from the vehicle. The hay was soon destroyed, and in the meantime the houses on either side of the street took fire.

The firemen were soon on the ground, but despite their efforts two three story frame tenement houses were completely demoished and three others rendered untenantable.

Three other dwellings were so badly damaged that the occupants were compeled to vacate them.

A frame stable, occupied by John McLear and owned by N. W. Hallock, was destroyed. It was situated in the rear of No. 106 Gold street, near Charles. Mr. Hallock sustains a loss of $800 and Mr. Lear $150; insured in the Phoenix Insurance Company.

The International Rowing Match. William Hammait Simmons and Aiden Porter Loring are the two sure men for the Harvard boat in the coming race between Oxford (England) and Harvard (America). William H. Simmons is of Concord, Mass. He has had a rowing experience of nearly four years, holding the position of second in the University boat in the race of 1867, at Worcester, and of third in the race of race of 1867, at Worcester, and of third in the race of 1868. He is a man of most powerful trame, weighng, trai ned, 170 pounds. His form, while rowing, is acknowledged by boating men to screass any of Harvard's former carsines.

Alden Parker Loring, of Boston, is also a man of some four years' experience. In his freshman year (1869) he was taken into the University crew (the year Win, Blaikin was stroke); his position then was fifth. During the next two years (1867 and 1808) he was stroke of the boat. His thorough knowledge of the science of boating renders him a capital man to coach a crew, and the fact that he has been chosen capitain, and is to row bow, give the crew great strength. The change from stroke to bow is not owing to any failing of, but the different powers of Simmons and Loring seem to adapt them to these places.

Simmons and Loring seem to adapt them to these places.

Most every Harvard man will rejoice in knowing that by good judges these two men are considered the finest oarsmen that ever entored Harvard.

It is uncertain who the other two men will be. It is much to be hoped that it. C. Watson can be persauded to go, as his pluck and capital work in the two University races of 1897 and 1808 was so marked. If not there are four men, McBurney, Rice, Clark and Bass, any two of whom would be capital men.

Mr. Arthur Burnham, of Chicago, Ill., seems to be the man spoken of for coxswain.

The labor of raising funds has been given to an excellent committee and it is hoped all Harvard graduates will respond liberally.
